

SAN MATEO - EXHIBIT T

These photos were taken by Vertex on July 31, 2020 during the kayak-based inspection of the Black River. The photos depict the condition of the river at the location of the video still image provided to NMED by a resident living approximately one-quarter mile downstream from the alleged release.