

NMED 2023 Synopsis of Regional Haze Public Comments

Version 2023.2.28

Date (with link)	From	To	Comment / Summary
December 19, 2019	National Parks Conservation Association (NPCA)	NMED AQB	Reasonable Progress Analysis for Nitrogen Oxide Pollution Control Upgrades at San Juan Generating Station Units 1 and 4 and at Escalante Generating Station , Victoria R. Stamper; Prepared for National Parks Conservation Association and Sierra Club. December 19, 2019
March 6, 2020	NPCA	NMED AQB	Oil and Gas Sector Reasonable Progress Four-Factor Analysis of Controls For Five Source Categories: Natural gas-fired Engines, Natural Gas-fired Turbines, Diesel Fired Engines, Natural Gas-Fired Heaters and Boilers, Flaring and Incineration . Prepared for National Parks Conservation Association by Vicki Stamper and Megan Williams. March 6, 2020.
May 22, 2020	NPCA	NMED AQB	Letter to NMED staff and memo - Review of Claims Made by New Mexico Oil and Gas Companies Regarding Applicability of Selective Catalytic Reduction (SCR) to Lean Burn Engines . By Victoria Stamper and Megan Williams. May 21, 2020
May 29, 2020	Coalition to Protect America’s National Parks, Diné C.A.R.E., Earthjustice, National Parks Conservation Association, San Juan Citizens Alliance, Sierra Club, Western Environmental Law Center	EPA with forward to NMED	Petition to EPA for Reconsideration of Regional Haze Final Guidance by NPCA. May 8, 2020. Forwarded to NMED on May 29, 2020.
July 2, 2020	NPCA	NMED AQB	Assessment of Cost Effectiveness Analyses for Controls Evaluated Four – Factor Analyses for Oil and Gas Facilities For the New Mexico Environment Department’s Regional Haze Plan for the Second Implementation Period w/ comments responding to 4-factor analysis submittals from identified oil & gas operators. Prepared by Vicki Stamper & Megan Williams for National Parks Conservation Organization. July 2, 2020.
September 2, 2020	NPCA	NMED AQB	Comments on the Enchant/Farmington July 9, 2020 Submittal to the New Mexico Environment Department on Nitrogen Oxide Air Pollution Controls at San Juan Units 1 and 4

NMED 2023 Synopsis of Regional Haze Public Comments
Version 2023.2.28

			to Make Reasonable Progress Towards the National Visibility Goal. Prepared by Victoria R. Stamper for NPCA and Sierra Club. September 2, 2020.
January 21, 2022	Sierra Club, NPCA, Earth Justice	EPA	Letter re: State RH SIPr Submittals - Five Major Areas Where Issues Arise in State RH SIPs. By Stephanie Kodish, NPCA. January 21, 2022.
February 7, 2022	Sierra Club, Earthjustice	EPA	Notice of Intent to File Suit Under the Clean Air Act for Failure to Make Statutory Completeness Determinations and Findings of Failure to Submit Regional Haze State Implementation Plans for the Second Planning Period. February 7, 2022.
March 1, 2022	NPCA, Sierra Club, San Juan Citizens Alliance, Western Environmental Law Center, Diné CARE	NMED	Request for NMED to require PNM to submit four-factor analysis for San Juan Generating Station. March 1, 2022.